

twitter

A service for friends, family, and co-workers to communicate and stay connected through the exchange of quick, frequent messages called “Tweets” of 140 characters or fewer.

How to create an account:

1. Navigate to www.twitter.com, enter your full name and click the yellow button on the right hand of your screen.
2. Fill in the first field with your full name.
3. Select a username from one of the usernames from the suggested list or create your own.
4. Enter a password and your email address.
5. Fill in the Captcha to prove you’re human, not a machine!
6. Search for Friends, and follow them!

A screenshot of the Twitter account creation form. The form has several input fields: 'Full Name' with 'Johnny Doley', 'Email Address' with 'johnd@myemail.com', and 'Password' with a masked password. There are checkboxes for 'I agree to the Terms of Service' and 'I agree to the Privacy Policy'. A yellow 'Create my account' button is at the bottom. A small 'or' button is visible on the right side of the form.
